Whereas designation of National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week in each of the last 7 years has stimulated many activities and programs by groups in both the private and public sectors aimed at curbing drunk and drugged driving in the high-risk Christmas and New Year holiday period and thereafter; and

Whereas the activities and programs during National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week have heightened the awareness of the American public to the danger of drunk and drugged driving: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the week of December 10, 1989, through December 16, 1989, is designated as "National Drunk and Drugged Driving Awareness Week" and the President is authorized and requested to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe the week with appropriate activities.

Approved December 11, 1989.

CONGRESSIONAL RECORD, Vol. 135 (1989):
Nov. 21, considered and passed House and Senate.